April's Space Report

April wrote a report and made a display about space. Her report began with many facts. She explained how much a person would weigh on the moon, the rapid speed of light, and even stranger things. Her display had one main feature, a picture of the freight the space shuttle carries.

All of April's hard work was rewarded. Her project was given an A grade. Later that afternoon, April showed her project to her neighbor. Her neighbor gave April a big hug.
